

2022 ATSPA Trauma Prevention Recognition Award

Presented by the American Trauma Society, Pennsylvania Division

The Pennsylvania Division of the American Trauma Society has elected to honor an individual or group who has gone above and beyond the call of duty in trauma prevention. The honoree is someone who exemplifies the goals of the ATSPA in preventing needless injury and death. Nominees can be any individual or group who has shown a determination to excel in trauma prevention.

To nominate an individual or group for this award, please complete the online nomination form by following the link below.

This award will be presented to the winning recipient during the American Trauma Society, Pennsylvania Division's annual conference on Tuesday, April 5, 2022, at 8:30 am at the Kalahari Resort and Convention Center, in Pocono Manor, PA. If, for some reason, the award recipient is unable to attend, it is expected that the nominator will attend and accept the award on their behalf.

The award winner will be offered travel expenses to/from the conference (i.e., vehicle mileage, tolls, and travel meals, excluding alcoholic beverages) and is also eligible to request a complimentary night of lodging for the evening of April 4, 2022.

Nominations must be received no later than January 21, 2022. Submit a nomination by clicking here.
